

BLUEGRASS RETIRED TEACHERS ASSOCIATION

Spindletop

December 10, 2021

Bluegrass Retired Teachers met December 10, 2021 at 11:30 am at Spindletop. President Karen Guffey called the meeting to order and welcomed everyone. She discussed plans for the March and May meetings.

Karen thanked Esther Noland for the table decorations and Lisa Stuckey for taking care of reservations. She introduced Reverend Louis Newby who presented an inspirational message reminding us that teachers plant seeds and as retired teachers we can continue to plant seeds.

Lunch was served and we were entertained with music by Vickie, Sylvia, and Jeff Myers.

Ellie Thompson demonstrated how to make a mini yarn Christmas ornament.

Karen introduced Tim Abrams, KRTA Executive Director. He discussed the four 2022 Legislative Priorities. The biggest concern is the Medical Insurance Fund.

Karen reminded members to visit the KRTA website and also our BGRTA website for updated information.

Lisa Petry-Kirk, president of Central Kentucky West, reported that the next CKW meeting will be in early February. She presented a brief history of Spindletop.

Door prizes were presented.

The meeting adjourned at 1:45 pm.
